Great and Useful Invention.

No more Mortality for want of Water.

Sure security in Conflagrations

By the Robert Apparatus.

Being notorious the immense injury occasioned by the scarcity of water during the long (seven) days affect the camps of Buenos Ayres, I have determined to dedicate to the Estancieros an Apparatus at once simple and infallible for procuring as much water as they may require.

120 Bordaseos per hour (it seems fabulous) is procured with very opportune, without fear of at any time its getting out of order.

This machine is worked by one horse and in one day's work can give 1440 Bordaleos; that is to say, sufficient water for 10,000 head of cattle.

By these figures can be calculated the immense advantages gained by its use.

Another advantage is the facility of putting it together and taking it to pieces, so as to be able to transport it to any place where it may be necessary to use it, ether for watering purposes or others.

GREAT MODIFICATION.

I have made an improvement in my Apparatus, applying a new system which reduces the necessary force two thirds, giving it at the same time more rapidity.

Those interested can see it at Calle Moreno, No. 348 (Henerrado, Paris.)

One sole inspection of the Apparatus will prove to them the superiority of it over any other.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1864.

SIEGE OF CORDOBA.

Governor Manbecin accused of Assassination.

The 'Ferro carril' brings dates from Cordoba, 19th inst. Colonel Alvarez, who is said to be following Gen. Paunero's orders, arrived within 5 leagues of that city on the 18th, at the head of 600 men indifferently armed, and ordered Don Roque Ferreira to hand over the reins of government to Don Ireneo Gonzalez who is at present in irons. The besieger alleges that Ferreira's term of office being up, the Constitution must be called into force by execution; but Sor. Gonzalez has before refused the dangerous honor, and in any case he cannot act as "Interino" while not being President of the Legislature. Alvarez threatens to eject Ferreira 'noless-volens,' and the latter, counting on a force of 3500 infantry and 1000 cavalry and hoping to excite the 'amour propre,' of the citizens indignantly "refuses to hold communication with a rebellious officer." Cordoba lies the governor completely intimidated, for he despatched a private committee of three priests to reason with the besieging gauchos.

Some of Ferreira's enemies now support him, rather than suffer themselves to be trampled on by this new pretender, and the garrison paraded daily in the plaza amid enthusiastic plaudits. Alvarez enjoys great prestige in the campagna, and his rebellion is the more dangerous as the late Quiocho archers there will probably join him. Barricades were erected in the city, and artillery mounted, on the 18th; preparations of soldiers guarded each street-corner, and the city expected an attack. The three priests were unable to find Alva, rez, who had shifted his position during the recent rains. They were instructed not to treat with him unless he recognised Ferreira as Governor, which is exactly the point at issue.

Private letters from Catamarca confirm the account of Gov. Manbecin's attempt to assassinate Senator Marmol, D. Pedro Cano and D. Francisco Vega. The whole plan was discovered, and we are promised particulars of the attempt by next mail. We should hesitate to believe the story were it not confirmed by the previous imprisonments, banishment, extortion, &c. of this King of Dahomey, as the Ferrocarril styles him.

We have news from Rioja, Feb. 19; things are going on badly, no troops have held to carry the late elections. Dantes' cause was lost, until Colonel Granillo began to frighten some of the Electors and bribe others up to 300 dollars for their votes. Colonel Arredondo acted very badly, permitting Granillo to arrest Sor. Villafane, President of the Legislature. The National Guards refusing to execute such an order, the 4th battalion of the line did it. Bustos and Arredondo then summoned five deputies, whom they had gained over, and ordered them to hold a session, but not attending; at the first five, three voted for Bustos, the other two not voting: the President, Villafane, refusing to proceed with the farce, a band of music went through the town, celebrating Bustos's election.

From Rosario we learn with satisfaction that two of the assassins who perpetrated the tragedy at Cerrillos have been arrested. The woman, who had been shot down, has been brought to Rosario, and identified the murderers. The commander of San Javier mentions the return of 200 gauchos to that village: these men had taken to campranging in Beron's time, and committed great depredations.

A robbery was committed on board the Espiguelor, a fellow having stolen a quantity of money and other articles from the cabin: it is now in custody and has handed over to the police.

AN ARGENTINE EXHIBITION

The 'Ferro-Carril' of Rosario, in an article suggesting the holding of an Argentine Exhibition, which would, it thinks, be useful in fomenting the industry of these provinces, has the following remarks :—

"Let us begin with the more important province. Buenos Ayres, besides hides, wool, mare's greave, and beef, has many other articles of manufacture, which could be pointed out by the press, and which would be a credit to the metropolitan province. Santa Fe could send wheat, flour, wool, hides, tanned goods, fish and shells, medicinal herbs, 'mani,' sweetmeats, and preserved fruits. Of manufactures: goods: Saddlery, ponchos, castings, cigars, and various other things, which could show to what pitch industry has advanced. Amongst native woods may be mentioned, red willow, black and yellow lancewood, lapacho, urunday, quebracho, algarrobo, and numerous others of all sizes. Entre Rios:—Timber, gypsum, chochineal, jerked beef, all kinds of hides, wool, mare's greave, lime, shells, hay, skins of tiger and carpincho, ostrich feathers, silver ware, saddlery, &c.

From Corrientes, timber, canes, jars, pitchers, and other ware, different woven fabrics, cow hides, deer skins, tiger, carpincho and aguara skins, cotton, yerba mate, and tobacco. Especially valuable and mineral waters, and many objects of curiosity of Indian origin: cotton cloths, &c.

From Cordoba alone the produce is fit to fill an exhibition. In wool it can compete with the Banda Oriental. In wheat it is famous, and its hides are of the best class. Many fabrics are also woven there, and the Cordovese leather is favourably known. A collection of the various classes of timber would also be interesting: its flour is excellent, and so are its sweetmeats and preserved fruits. It produces in great quantities fruit nuts, and honey. Amongst its natural produce are gold, silver, copper lead, iron, gypsum, clay for fire-bricks, slate, beautiful quartzites of all sizes and quality, different coloured slate, grindstones: piedra de sapo, and timber in abundance. Its hills contain many medicinal herbs, and the 'junco,' a plant which yields more potash than 'barilla' itself. The workmen of the villages could show the manufacture of silk work, from a pair of shoes to bed quilts of the best qualities, ponchos, carpets, and superfine quilts.

San Luis could send some minerals, hides, and a very superior class of wool. The fruit of the algarrobo, and various ornamental plants and grasses, which would sell easily in Europe; honey, cochineal, and ostrich feathers.

Mendoza and San Juan. As the produce of these provinces I have not seen, we will mention them together: they are as follows :—Wheat, flour, dried fruits, aguardientes, wines, raisins, figs, olives, hides, tallow, seeds, wool, mules and bees' wax, in which a large trade is carried on with Chile, olive oil, large quantities of excellent soap, goat skins, wool, jars of marble, alabaster and of piedra casidonia, lime, gypsum, asphalt, petroleum, coal, ammonia, mineral soap and mineral waters.

They possess inexhaustible silver mines, mines of sulphuret of lead, and the richest mines of copper in the Spaniards, and perhaps the Indians.

This imperfect list, is sufficient to show how many valuable objects could come from these provinces.

La Rioja—But little is known of the resources of this province, owing to the state of anarchy there. It produces excellent wheat, and all classes of fruit, in great abundance. The wines are said to compare favourably the best of Europe, and a class suitable for England could be easily made. It is rich in minerals, in gold, silver, copper, nickel, lead, iron, and coal.

Catamarca has the same produce as La Rioja, but it produces more hard wood than any other province. It has a large trade with Chile. Wheat, maize, barley, alfalfa seed, vetches, beans, and potatoes are grown. The value of its products amounts to 1,000,000 dollars, a sieve of minerals. The textures made in Catamarca are of Vicuna wool, sheep wool, and cotton, the former valuable. Vicuna ponchos are sold as high as 400 sometimes higher, than $50 each, and Catamarca ponchos are valued at $30 and 40 women manufacture all kinds of embroidery, blankets, counterpanes, and other cloths.

The mines and aguardientes of Catamarca are as famous as those of La Rioja. This province also produces muchgalvanic, and fine wool, both of sheep and vicuna. Besides the wool sent to the exhibition indigo, tobacco, rice, cotton, red pepper, cochineal, some inferior dyes, and lancewood, were sent. Dried fruits are more abundant than in San Juan, and the minerals of Catamarca are second to none. From this province alone 600 different articles worthy of being placed in the Exhibition could be had.

Tucuman could send rich collections of timber, rice, sugar, honey, hides, fine tobacco, indigo, coffee, cocoa, petroleum, medicinal herbs, and a thousand other articles of interest.

Santiago would supply hides, wool, valuable textures, and many natural products.

Salta and Jujuy would not be left behind in this amicable struggle—the only people who could send wool and hides blood, but, on the contrary, would tighten the brotherly bonds in the provinces.

STATE OF THE INTERIOR

(From the Ferro-Carril)

With the exception of Cordoba and Catamarca, all the provinces are enjoying a profound peace. In the former, the bad passions of the people, or rather of the petty partisan leaders, for the people are quietly enough disposed, keep the unhappy province into all sorts of difficulties.

We cannot say what degree of truth there may be in what they say of the participation that General Flamarion, an officer in the national army, has had in the affairs, but it is very certain that he has attempted to excite a large portion of the people to such an extent, that since his absence has not had the effect of allaying the fear.

The two fractions of the liberal party in Cordoba, we are sorry to say, have passed from paper and words' warfare to blows, and blood has already been spilt. The last intelligence left Colonel Alvarez, a Paunerista, at the head of six hundred men, at a short distance from the capital, with the open design of displacing the Government, while inside the city there is a respectable force and a strong feeling in favour of the present Governor.

In Catamarca things are getting from bad to worse, and it is highly probable that a bloody provincial revolution will be the result of the scandalous Government in that province. The attempt was lately made by the Governor to assassinate three of the principal personages of Catamarca, one of them Senator for the National Congress.

In San Juan new discoveries of rich mines have given a fresh impulse to the works, and it is said that they have produced plata pina, or solid silver. The San Juana mining company has nearly completed its establishment, and will soon be in operation on the rich mines of the rich mines of the Tontah.

The National Government is labouring hard to establish peace throughout the country, and many of the provinces are assisting in the good work, particularly Mendoza, Salta and Jujuy.

The government has also entered into a contract for the digging of artesian wells in Rioja, a measure of great importance, if successful in Rioja will be extended to all the provinces where fresh water is scarce during certain portions of the year.

Entre Rios and Santa Fe's government anxiously at work to better its condition and make available to their fullest extent the great resources of that rich portion of the Republic. Santa Fe is quite disappointed "good natured" progonstications of his political enemies in Buenos Ayres, by giving an example of respect for the laws and of public institution, that might be advantageously followed by a good many pseudo liberal governments of the Argentine Confederation, not excepting that of Buenos Ayres.

But of all the provinces of the Confederation, Santa Fe is certainly that which shows most peace and the most good government, the industry of its inhabitants and the progress it is making notwithstanding its past suffering and losses for warfare, in the province is still unjustly denied retribution.

The governor Mr. Cullen, desiring to return to his private life, has resigned the chief magistracy to Mr. Oroño, the most active, patriotic and "go a shead" man we have in the province. The "Ferro-carril" for the city of Santa Fe is full of excellent locrses and regulations of an administrative character.

The Governor has also initiated the idea of a National Exposition for the products of the country, to be held some time at the end of the present year, and has suggested Rosario as the most favorable point for it to be held in.

We trust that the Government will be more successful in this than in the case of Mr. Rawson, the Minister of the Interior, is indefatigable in everything that tends to the development of the natural wealth of the country.

From the Argentine Exhibition a vast number of interesting products, manufactured and unmanufactured, might be sent to the exposition in Paris next year; and this would tend to disseminate in Europe a knowledge of the great commercial importance of the provinces forming the Argentine Confederation.

The proceeding of the Rosario Custom house in the last year amounted to 547,908 dol. to which ought to be added 18,180 for articles shipped from this port the duties on which were paid in Buenos Ayres.

The amount of importation is $3,260,861 showing a balance in our favor of $1,320,000.

The aggregate value is $130,000 less than that returned for by the falling off of hides, and the low price of wool

PARAGUAY AND LA PLATA.

As a time when civil experience shews us the rottenness of our present system of Government in B. Ayres, when this city is divided into two hostile camps each professing loyalty and patriotism, when every street can boast its Catalino, and thrifty traders are made the spart of disappointed ambition, it may be well to weigh calmly the opinions prevalent in Europe respecting La Plata and her neighbors.

Belgium is at once the country which has most progressed of late years, and that with which we carry on the largest export business. The sentiment there, of La Precursore of Antwerp should be taken as coming from a well-wishing and experienced friend. We extract as follows:

"Our attention in continuity turned, with a forcible interest, to the banks of River Plate, where our commerce might be greatly developed, and our surplus population might acquire an easy fortune: we therefore regret most sincerely that peace cannot take root in that country owing to the personal ambition and adventurous spirit which raises up one Government after another amid rivers of blood. Scarcely is the Government established in Paraguay, but Banda Oriental is devastated by civil war, an expedition having been got up in the inter republic to embroil both sides of La Plata."

"Meantime Paraguay, thanks to a wise Government and docile people remains in the enjoyment of a peace blessing unknown to her neighbors for the last half century. Order and good government enable her to make rapid strides in every branch of prosperity. Paraguay is a contrast to her neighbors, who offer to the world a sad spectacle of disorder and anarchy. That country, which makes great advances under the late President, and is steadily going ahead. Its commerce is greatly developed throughout the country, agriculture is becoming a prolific source of wealth. foreign trade is springing up, and the cotton which flourishes in Paraguay are acquiring a name in our markets. The means of transport are increased by the establishment of steamers on the rivers. The army and navy are respectable, and well organised, while the good faith of the Government has nowhere been shaken by either in the difficulties of neighboring States.

"The rebellion of Flores has progressed much more prominent. A plenipotentiary was despatched from Montevideo to Asuncion begging President Lopez's assistance to repel the aggression of Flores. Lopez, the Paraguayan Government at once lent its sympathy, and despatched an energetic note to General Mitre. This elicited a very polite reply, denying all participation with Flores, and protesting an honourable neutrality: the circumstances, however, are so peculiar, and that President Lopez sent a second and stronger demand for explanations, adding that he was determined to support the Government of the Banda Oriental as a necessary equilibrium, while the symptoms indicated that Buenos Ayres wished to annex that republic.

"It is to be hoped that President Mitre will get out of this scrape by taking steps to put a stop to the hostility. The conduct of Paraguay has been most praiseworthy, and evinced a resolution to act up to her word. If Montevideo is to be saved, it is only by a guarantee peace and harmony among those countries, and we should not have the least to regret new commotions in La Plata."

NOTES TO THE PROTESTANT APPEAL

(1) It is only as a mercantile speculation that the Scotch colony of 18/5 has been established, and that is why higher and ulterior objects have all been accomplished, perhaps more effectually than they would have been by the same capital invested in land.

From its debris has sprung up a model farm in the neighbourhood of San Isidro, where may be seen the most valuable and improved species of merino sandry, in successful operation, with a spirited and judicious attention to the improvement of the breed in all its departments. At the same time we could cite more than twenty rural establishments any one of which might be the source of a fortune, and all of the prominent citizens of one, in the district of Carabelas, to that proud distinction. Its financial estates, and the chaplaincy of the colony has expanded into three Protestant institutions, whilst the want of one or more is already beginning to be felt. So far, therefore, the individuals who composed that colony have had no reason to complain, but the colony itself has been a failure nevertheless; for they have done much towards enriching it and elevating the social status of the country generally.

(2) And this double satisfaction must have been foregone but for the vicinity and courtesy of the Waldenses and Vaudois pastors, who have come out in the weather, and the rapid decomposition of the body, struck down in health and strength, and have seen it carried in transport to Buenos Ayres or Montevideo altogether impracticable. This is a most important consideration to settlers in remote localities of the Oriental Republic; and hence interments in unconsecrated ground, in the corner of a field, or even in a thicket, are the frequent occurrence with families of the highest standing. We could cite a list of names in the province, but delicacy forbids. There is one exceptional case, however, that we shall cite in the hope it may yet be in part rectified, and is a matter of stigma removed from our national character.

Robert Burns, nephew of "Scotia's immortal bard," has long been living in one of the estancias that belonged to, we believe the late Mr. Jackson of Montevideo. Gould not his bones be collected and, decently interred, as a small tribute of homage to his lineage, and the same be done ?

And since on this subject, there is another case on this side the River Plate, that does little credit to British authorities and British residents, we refer to that of Lieutenant Wardlow of the British navy, and son, of the late Dr. Wardlow of Glasgow. In this case the claims are more direct and personal, as no one can question the propriety and expediency of showing due respect to the remains of a gallant officer that fell in the service of his Queen and country.

To the deceased it may matter little where their bones mouldier; but to friends, and more to the living, the case is very different. "To bury our dead out of our sight" is a natural instinct, as wise as gracious; but if we are exposed to see this every morning and evening walks or daily avocations, it can scarcely be said that they are out of sight. In short, this is not supposed to be tolerated only in cases where it is inevitable, and every opportunity of abridging it should be gratefully heeded.

(3) After our rulers and statesmen, the landed proprietors are the parties most interested in foreign immigration; for it is the surest and most direct means of raising the value of their property. In less than forty years, lands in the Province of Buenos Ayres and throughout the Oriental Republic have risen to more than ten times their previous value, and this fabulous rapidity of increase is chiefly owing to our foreign farmers. And more still may be expected from a judicious system of immigration, such as that of the Waldenses. If allowed to expand, and there are hopeful symptoms of expansion in the locality, for during the last five years there have been twenty-four marriages in the colony, against seven deaths, and in the five years past per annum, for the next twenty years, to the value of all lands within a circuit of ten leagues; and to others proportionate, in an inverse ratio, to the distance. After this calculation, compound interest of course, we mistake greatly if they do not find their duty and interest harmonized, in protecting this, and encouraging similar enterprises. We have seen the happy effects at a distance from home in the case of pastoral lands, and a still greater advance, in wealth and civilisation, remains to be seen, when our present pastoral lands are converted into agricultural.

SCOTUS.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The news from the interior, per 'Paysan,' is rather alarming. Cordoba besieged by 600 men under a hero named Alvarez, Catamarca delivered up a reign of terror under Manbecin. These are indications of the lawless education of our provincial brethren, and augur ill we have not yet discovered the philosopher's stone of true Government.

The Mersey steam-packet met with an accident about an hour after leaving this port on Friday evening. The air-pump rod broke, and she was compelled to return under canvass. Through the skilful efforts of our countryman, Mr. Sanders, we are happy to say, she will be ready to proceed on her voyage by Monday evening. The passengers have come ashore, and the Mersey is lying in the inner roads.

We have received a sample of this year's cotton from Corrientes. It has a longer and stronger staple that of Cumbui, but is not so white in color. The picking season now commences, and we expect most of the crop will pass through our hands.

The 'Ferro-carril' states that Gen. Lopez will be proclaimed Emperor of Paraguay on the 30th inst., and that most of the new nobility are unmarried, and this will be a good look out for an enterprising and attentive mother.

We have been requested by our friends in Rosario to invite an English master to settle down in that city. One who understands a little Spanish is preferred. As there is none there, it is likely a smart young man would realize 100 Hs. per month monthly. This is an excellent chance for some of the well-educated youths knocking about with their hands in their pockets.

The Minister of Education publishes a new programme for the Universities of Buenos Ayres and Cordoba, and College of Concepcion. The first has already reduced the number of free students in the last-named establishment, to 40. The Cordoba establishment is rector of studies, and M. Larroque at Concepcion.

The 'Tribune' states the Messageries Imperiales are about to run steamers from Montevideo to Paita. This is very unlikely, as there is not sufficient business for two French mail boats. Steamers are now all the rage, and we expect soon to hear of Mr. Hopkins' projected line from New York. By the way, a line from Galway, carrying passengers for £10 or £12 would pay.

Captain Curlewis advises us he will keep open a mail-bag "for unpaid letters to Europe" at the Packet agency, until 1 p.m. on Monday. The Mersey will stop only 24 hours at Montevideo, and arrive in time at Rio Janeiro for the home packets. There were several papers open for Montevideo, per Mersey. Notwithstanding the delay, Captain C. promises to be here by the 14th March.

The officers dismissed from their several battalions by the Provincial Government are as follows:—Colonel Caviedes, L. Col. Girvan, Major Donato Alvarez, Major Casanova, L. Col. Sosa, L. Col. Acosta. It is most likely the national Government will require their services. Col. Galvan has proved himself a brave and intelligent officer: his name indicates Irish descent.

Our attention has been called to some remarks by native passengers against the captain of the Esmeralda: we know all the circumstances, viz.: a gentleman sleeping on the cabin sofa, with his boots on, was politely told to read the regulations, and took affront. Another was vexed because his trunks were put into the hold instead of under the dining table. Captain Hunter only does his duty in not permitting a breach of the regulations. From personal experience, we can testify that a more attentive commander, cleaner vessel, or better table we could not desire. But it seems hard to put out the lamps at ten o'clock.

The Corrientine Yerba Company held a meeting at the Bolsa on Friday; when the new Regulations were passed and the following officers elected: President, Wm. Thompson, Esq.; Vice, D. Mariano Casares; Directors, Messrs. Hilarion Medrano, Mariano Cabral, Lamda Gonzalez, and Bernardino Garcia; Suplentes, Messrs. Aug. Pasman, Francisco Molina and Julio Sanchez; Manager, D. Augustin Silveria.

The first number of "River Plate Magazine" will appear on Tuesday, 1st inst., with an engraving of the attack on Buenos Ayres by the Indians, after the Cisneros revolt.

We invite Irish residents to attend the meeting at this office on Monday evening, when an Irish Society will be formed. Subscription 2 per Centum's dinner.

To-morrow, being February 29th, will be a happy anniversary for persons born on that date, whose birthday only comes once in four years. We have, however, a reason to be grateful to Julian Caledar, before the date of which they had no birthday at all.

To night the Bulsa will perform Zampa's overture, the Colon has the Bufos at the Victoria. For those who understand French calembourgs, the latter is better value.

We published yesterday an appeal to the Protestant community, the sequence whereof appears to day. By another day the signatures will be all omitted making it appear an editorial, which it was not, although we coincide in its purport.

The height of the La Plata steamer is unavoidably postponed until 4th March, owing to the heavy weather and the "spitting" mouth of the Boca preventing the lighters with cargo coming out. The question of the Boca demands the immediate attention of the Government, if they are not too much engaged in politics.

THE JHELUM CASE.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen,

I have perceived in the 'Standard' of this morning a letter signed Governor of the Jhelum, stating that one of the lightermen got hurt, through the rudeness of the crew, in the discharge of the cargo, which I am sorry to say is as to other vessel having had quite or despatch than mine. I beg to refer you to the testimony of the Rev. Mr. Hands, Johannes, arrived here on the 14th December last, and the Duc de Brabant, arrived here on the 18th of same month, who will, I presume, tell you as they have on board. Also, it would not be much trouble for you to inquire if the lighterman was drunk or not on discharge, for a quantity of days, viz., the British brigs Lotus, Lady Havelock, and Elizabeth, and the British schooner Anchor Watch will easily perceive by the above statement that nearly every vessel consigned to Mr. Hands has been on demurrage, and the vessels are now suing him for same. I also beg to acquaint you that after the expiration of the twenty-one running days every day is demurrage day afterwards, whether wind or weather, holydays or Sunday, permits to discharge.

I am, &c.,

Yours respectfully,

JAMES STANNUS.

READY RECKONER.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Dear Sir,

Allow me the use of your broad sheet to suggest to some benevolent individual the propriety of issuing a sufficient town for the 'science of numbers,' and leisure to devote to the subject, the necessity of compiling a new 'Tables Cambistes sobre Inglaterra,' suited for our altered system of currency, as the old one calculated the ounces or doublons is now useless.

I have no doubt the immediate demand for such a little book would amply remunerate the author for his trouble, and there is besides the nobler feeling of having conferred a boon upon so many unfortunate over-worked clerks. Or if published by subscription, I have no doubt every English house would gladly contribute a fair quota of the expense.

Excuse the idle suggestion of a

USED-UP CLERK.

Pocket Night, February, 1864.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Cashiered.—We see by the native newspapers that five military commandantes have been removed from their posts, on the plea that the Militia should be commanded by citizens and not by military men.

Colonel Luis Alonzo.—It seems that this individual, who at the head of a few troops appeared before Cordova and ordered it to surrender, has got into a mess with the Buenos Ayres Government by his conduct, and been ordered to surrender his post and report himself at head quarters with some mistake or other in our yesterday's paper, in referring to this turbulent individual, we stated that he "omitted to the Government that Cordova had surrendered." This should have read, that he at the head of some men appeared before Cordova, and demanded of the Government a surrender of the place. This note ordering Alvarez to present himself, Señor Gorly says, mentions that orders have been passed to the chiefs of the national troops stationed in the province to abstain from mixing themselves up in the internal politics of Cordoba.

The Military Legion.—This body of men may be expected from one moment to another in the Paraná steamer the 25 de Mayo near San Lorenzo, on her passage down from Santa Fe, with them on board. The Tribune states that the men are intended to be stationed at Azul.

Maritime News.—On the night of the 20th inst. it blew very strongly in Montevideo, and the Prussian barque Feanrot (?) came in collision with the Hamburgh brig Magda; both suffered some damage in their upper works —T. V.

The smaller Anavilles of the Press.—As though there was not sufficient bad blood nourished in general existence in Buenos Ayres, the 'cronistas' must needs join the Montagues and the Capulets of the fourth estate, and scowling at one another demand "Do you bite your thumb at me, Sir?" Occasionally, this warlike temperament is slightly lowered and cooled, and then the rival 'cronistas' indulge in a little of what is called in the play ground of the charter house, 'duffers' chaff.' To an onlooker, who may be of a peaceful turn of mind, such words battles are rather pleasant and amusing than otherwise. For example, in the "Porteño" of Friday, the 'cronista' takes up the chaff, by pretending to apologise for having said sundry wicked things against the "Nacional." Amongst other charges retracted is the following—'That it publishes articles which should never have appeared, for causes which it well knows.' That last sentence is gem: it shows humour and playful sarcasm combined, and, like all of its class, leaves the reader to put either a good or a bad construction upon it. It is almost equal to a memorandum which was pasted on the walls of a gallant captain, in Dublin Castle—'I shall tell Holmes to have nothing to do with Lenty Moore's niece, in regard to a reason.'

Theatrica's.—The 'Progres' says the subscription for establishing a French Theatre in Buenos Ayres is succeeding remarkably well, and that the principal people, both French and Argentine, are putting down their names. We wish them every success, for so long as people's minds are occupied, they have little time to hatch revolutionary projects. As many contribute now, as it is now the people's cry [— pauvre et circonscrez.' The same newspaper also states that there was some talk of getting up a theatre at Moron.

Good Joke.—The 'Reforma' correspondent says that General Mitre calls Hector Varela 'Quarrel's wife,' and laughs heartily at the idea, because Hector's favourite, it seems, was not a model of virtue.

Maritime Notice.—On the 24th inst. the Danish barque Johan, from Liverpool, arrived at Montevideo. The captain reports having been obliged to throw a hundred tons of coals overboard in consequence of the heavy weather he met with.

Exiles.—Three of those banished by Berro have returned from Paraguay, and intend going down to Montevideo; but they will hardly receive liberty to go on shore, nothi inprobable that they will take up their temporary residence on board some man of war, or else return to Buenos Ayres.

Steam-packet Service.—In a short time we may expect to have a line of steamers running between the ports of Marseilles—a branch of the present Imperial mail line. Two days ago the first of an Italian line from Genoa arrived here, having on board 230 emigrants. She is called the Buenos Ayres, and is a screw steamer of 497 tons. When the present fraternal war is finished in the States, may we expect to see a regular steam line established between this port and New York, or Boston.

Another Murder.—In the department of La Paz an old man of seventy years of age, called Col. Mariano Martinez, who owned a small estangia upon the Arroyo del Yeso, has been murdered, his house burned, and his wife's throat cut. Entre Rios is beginning to obtain an unenviable notoriety for that sort of thing.

Bolivia.—Since the 17th inst. there has been introduced into this place the following—$141 Bolivian dollars, 3886 patacones, 140 gold ounces.

Las Higueritas.—Nations generally suffer from having too many rulers; but as everything is, at present, turned topsy-turvy, Higueritas is likely to experience the same evils from want of leader to manage it. When the steamer Salto passed that city, it could boast of no authorities, as the Conscript Fathers had handed up their 'laves et penates,' and fled on the approach of the approach of Major Toloza at the head of some troops.

Markets.—The following is a list of the produce which was brought to town on the 20th inst.—2,348 cowhides, 90 horsehides, 12 calfskins, 372 doe sheepskins, 103 wethers horsehair, 375 arrobes wool, 750 fanegas wheat, 3,400 cuartillas peaches, 4,700 sandias, 40 cartloads firewood, 2,000 bundles straw.

A civil Police Report.—In the 'Progreso' of Corrientes of 11th inst. there is published the following simple statement:—"Police department—The undersigned begs to inform the Minister General of Government that a corpse was found this morning under the Battery Bridge; it was brought to this department and examined by the surgeon of police. The Chief, in person, went to the Battery barracks to make inquiries, and learned from one of the officers of the Battery guard, that on midnight previous, he heard that somebody was sleeping, apparently intoxicated, on one of the seats of the bridge, and supposing that he was one of his own corps, he ordered the guard to bring him in. The guard found him, and in trying to seat him on the parapet of the bridge, he fell into the water and was drowned at once before assistance could be had. There is every reason to believe that the man was very drunk—he was one of the body of serenos who was not on duty that night. JUAN J. F. BLANCO."

Mr. Blanco does not say one word about having had the battery guard reprimanded for their sage proceeding in placing a very drunk man on the parapet of a bridge. Such a seat even to a follower of Father Matthew, is somewhat precarious.

The Literal—General Urquiza has withdrawn his subscription, for ten months, from the paper, which enrages Carriego exceedingly.

Accident—A child aged two years was run over, on Thursday morning, in Calle Maipo, by a coach the driver of which, in the Palacio, where we hope he will remain for twelve months.

New Judges.—Dr. Benito Carrasco has been named Federal Judge for the province of B. Ayres; Snr. Ballesteror Justice of Peace for the new partido of S. Martin.

LATEST FROM CORDOBA.

Battle and Defeat of Alvarez.

Colonel Pizarro writes, under date February 19th, that he has gained a slight victory over the rebels near the Rio Norte.

At 10, a.m., Alvarez appeared on the north side of the city, and Col. Pizarro was sent out to reconnoitre his forces; a musketry fire began, and the rebels outflanking Pizarro's troops entered the city at full gallop, but met with resistance at the barricades.

Captain Moyano then led eighty men to Pizzaro's relief, and the rebels retired to take up a position in the suburbs, having lost two killed.

The rebels number 1500 men, and Colonel Pizarro excuses himself from opposing their entrance into the city, his force being only 180 cavalry. Nevertheless, being reinforced by eighty infantry, he boldly attacked Alsarez' head-quarters, and routed the rebel army, pursuing it for 2 leagues, killing 30, and capturing 130 horses, with loss of only 5 wounded—none killed. Several rebels have returned to their duty. The killed were interred on the field of battle.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA & C°.
No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co, in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the soundest and soundest principles and it is directed to promote the general well being.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also possessed that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1860.

p. p. Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st, The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p$] per annum which is liquidated every six months

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS

Corner of the Carretera of the London Tramway Company.

This Establishment, which from its formation has been patronized by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is at present reduced on an English School, where a complete and extensive education connected with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages is imparted to the pupils, and which upon the same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.

An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee that the moral behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English Department comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in all its parts, Writing, and Book-giving instruction.

Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, Germon, Music and Dancing, are also taught by special masters.

The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful Quintas of the Calle Larga de Barracas, at the very gates of the City, is one of the most healthful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
